Cumulative bibliography

This book spans nearly 50 years of the work of a prolific author operating in a considerable number of separate disciplines, and given to an unusually high, and generally criticised, level of auto-citation; the latter I have tended to justify by stressing the ongoing nature of my research (which makes that all individual instalments need the substantiation of earlier instalments and anticipate on the results only attained in later ones) and its considerable originality (which has often meant that few other authors could be cited in substantiation of my increasingly daring and contentious pronouncements). Especially in regard of my own writings, compiling and improving the bibliography, including the assigning of distinctive year letters (e.g. 2076a, 2076b, 2076c) for multiple items per year both in the bibliography and in the book's text, has therefore proved to be the most time-consuming, tantalising, and (in its excessive self-advertisement) potentially embarrassing, part of the editing of the present book. Inconsistencies and other blemishes could not always be avoided, and for these I request the reader's clemency. Since my earlier texts usually refer to such works in progress and in the press as have meanwhile been published in definitive form, I had the option of updating the originals so as to exclusively refer to the final versions, or to include the provisional versions in this bibliography along with the final versions. The choice had to be a pragmatic one, given time constraints, the risk of new errors which every correction implies, and the state of editing of each constituent chapter. As a result this bibliography is unattractively cluttered with provisional versions and near-duplicates, for which I apologise.

Index of authors

Here follows an exhaustive listing of all authors whose works are cited in the present book. Per entry, after surname and initials, first appear the relevant main-text page numbers in ascending order, followed by the relevant footnote page numbers, likewise in ascending order – e.g.: Adams, Peter, 13, 35–36, 377, 45n–46n, 553n – regardless of the actual footnote numbers. Surnames preceded by a prefix such as ‘de’, ‘von’, ‘van’ appear under that prefix. Co-authors are exclusively listed under the first author as declared in the title of the publication concerned. The indexes in this book have been prepared with software designed by my brother Peter D.H. Broers and written / rewritten by him and me jointly.

cf. = ‘compare, see also’; q.v. = ‘see there’; passim = ‘does occur frequently but no specific pages listed’; i.e. = ‘that is’; – = ‘insert the entry’s key word’; # = cf. Index of authors

Here follows an exhaustive listing of all proper names in this book other than those of authors cited, as well as a selective listing of subjects and technical terms, their definitions, and interrelations. Per entry, first appear the relevant main-text page numbers in ascending order, followed by the relevant footnote page numbers, likewise in ascending order – e.g.: Adams, Peter, 13, 35–36, 377, 45n–46n, 55n – regardless of the specific actual footnote numbers. In most cases the entry is briefly annotated, in other cases the reader is implicitly referred to the book text, and to encyclopaedic and Internet sources of additional information.

cf. = ‘compare, see also’; q.v. = ‘see there’; passim = ‘does occur frequently but no specific pages listed’; i.e. = ‘that is’; – = ‘insert the entry’s key word’. A few proper names appear both in this General Index and in the Index of Authors
